Nola Nilsson Weds
B.C. Man

The home of Mrs. and Mrs. Donny Nilsson, which was beautifully decorated with asters, petunias and flocks, was the setting Tuesday evening for the marriage of their daughter Nola Jean to Wilfred Bradshaw of Penttonton, B. C. The double ring ceremony was performed by Bishop Snow.

The bride chose a yellow ballerina length gown of yellow designed with a lace-over-taffeta bodice which featured a scalloped neckline and short sleeves. The full, lace effect taffeta skirt showed her white shoes. White gladioli was carried by the bride and a wreath of tiny yellow flowers nestled in her hair.

Diane, a sister of the bride, was her only attendant and wore a green sheer over taffeta ballerina dress while carrying a mixed bouquet. The best man was the groom's new brother-in-law, Russell Nilsson.

Mrs. Nilsson wore a green figured silk frock for her daughter's wedding complimented by a mixed flower corsage.

For traveling Mrs. Bradshaw wore a beige suit with black accessories.

They will make their home in Vermilion where the groom will be engaged in farming, when they return.

Don Petrak, Al Clark, and Nick Baranuk enjoyed themselves in Kalspell recently.

Mrs. Theora Piepgrass entertained the Wednesday Nite Club, last week. Rook was enjoyed followed by a delicious lunch. Prizes for the evening went to Mrs. Larree Dahl, first, Mrs. Avida Heggie, consolation and the travelling prize to Mrs. Lorell Holt.

Mr. Grant Dudley is at home, but is still feeling a little rocky from his accident a couple of weeks ago.

Our friend G. N. W. has high hopes of selling some of the merchandise he finds himself loaded with this Fall and would appreciate your looking at his ad on page three and then calling around and picking up one of these bargains — that's what he called them — bargains!

His multitude of friends will be pleased to learn that Perry Cope is now resting at home and although he is not feeling 100% he is on the mend. Best wishes for a speedy recovery are extended to a grand old man.

The neighbors of Miss Madeline Smith honored her at a shower last Saturday evening, at the home of Mrs. Iva Jensen. Madeline left on Monday for the Mission Home in Salt Lake prior to leaving for Samoa, where she will fill a mission for the LDS Church.

W. I. To Sponsor
Special Meeting
September 25

After two month's holiday, the regular monthly meeting of the Raymond W. I. was held on Sept. 11th, at the home of Mrs. E. Christensen, with Mrs. C. Rolfsen assisting hostess.

First Vice Pres. Mrs. S. Donaldson took charge of the meeting, and in the absence of the Secretary, Mrs. D. Paxman took the minutes.

Eleven members answered the Roll Call, with their opinions on 'How to Improve Our Schools'. There were two visitors present.

The W. I. Constituency in this district, will sponsor a meeting on Friday afternoon, Sept. 25th, in the Legion Hall, at 2:30 p.m., conducted by Mrs. M. L. Thompson of Lethbridge, who has recently returned from attending the A. C. W. W. conference. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

The next W. I. meeting will be held on Oct. 9th, with hostesses Mrs. M. Holland and Mrs. A. Court.

Our program consisted of a talk given by Miss Engberg, District Home Economist, and she chose to talk on 'Worth While Handicrafts'. Everyone takes pleasure out of creating something beautiful, but it also should be useful. Her talk was illustrated with books and posters and she recommended 'Creative Hands' to help those interested in fancy work. We also enjoyed a talk on rug making, and in rugs the design is very important. It must fit the room intended for the rug.

The talk closed with a display of native materials, grasses, rushes and dried weeds tastefully arranged as a bouquet. The tea prize was won by Miss Engberg. Mrs. E. Christensen donated an apron as her birthday gift, and this auctioned to Mrs. Paris for $1.25. After adjournment a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

NOTICE RE: SIDEWALKS

In the future sidewalk construction by the Town will be made on those blocks for which petitions have been received. The Council will decide which blocks are most needed, which may not be in the order in which petitions are received.

WORKS & PROPERTY COMMITTEE

Little Judy Prosk and her sister Brenda are visiting in town with relatives Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woolley and Mr. and Mrs. Marian Palmer, while Mom and Dad are holidaying. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Prosk of Lethbridge.

Karma Woolley leaves this weekend for Calgary where she will attend the Calgary Branch of the University.

Billie Stone, son of Mr and Mrs Gordon Stone, celebrated his 6th birthday with his family and friends, on Sept. 15th.

A broken pulley at the Sugar Factory was the cause of Mr. Joe Petrak receiving three broken ribs, on Wed.

A Kitchen Shower was held in the Legion Hall recently for Mrs. Ada Orgil, who lost all her kitchen supplies in their fire.

Mrs. Alice Christensen and son Ronnie, returned recently from a visit with Barbara in Regina. They traveled by train, much to the enjoyment of Ronnie.

Mrs. W. Selman and Mrs. C. Rolfsen are enjoying a few days visiting the Francom Selmans in Calgary.

Frank Navratil Injured
In Truck Accident

A serious accident occurred on Tuesday morning while Frank Navratil was driving one of Watson Bros. trucks to the Magrath mine. The truck turned turtle, completely wrecking itself and sending Frank to the hospital. It was a miracle he was able to survive the wreck, but is now resting quite comfortably in the local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brewerton attended the annual meeting of the Alberta Theatre Association held recently in Banff and Lee tells us that seldom if ever have they had a more enjoyable holiday. Highlight of the event was their association with the stars who were making a movie there. They had a chance to meet and talk with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Ladd, Marilyn Monroe, Shelley Winters, Robert Mitchum, J. Carol Naish, Otto Preminger, and others. During the business of the convention Lee was again elected as a Director.

A calling shower was held last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Casey Ralph. Honoring Miss Dorothy Cole of Calgary.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Edna West and girls of Picture Butte, Mrs. Marjory Schmor and girls, Mrs. John Hill and Mrs. Evan Hill of Stirling.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Bernice MacClean, Mrs. Yvonne Dahl, Mrs. J. D. Atwood and Mrs. Arline Bartasac.

Mr. and Mrs. Wit Hague, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Oliver of Picture Butte, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hague of Seattle, Mrs. Agnes Atwood and Mrs. Anne Larsen and Tommy were dinner guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Noel at the McIntyre Ranch. An enjoyable afternoon and evening of chatting was topped off by a chicken dinner with all the trimmings.

Paul Woolley met with a painful accident at the Sugar Factory, last week. A heavy battery fell on his left foot breaking it in two places.

An enjoyable evening was spent in Lethbridge Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. George Erickson entertained. After a lovely lunch, Rex showed his films of his mission in Denmark and of his tour of Europe before his return home.

Those present from here were: the Joe Strong's, Joe Woolleys, Maurice Coopers, Jack Evans and Anne Larsen.

Sup. Don Petrak wishes to invite all members and prospective members to the United Church's Sunday School which starts this Sunday at 11 a.m.

United Church W.A. To Hold 'Talent Month'

The opening meeting for the fall session of Raymond United Church W. A. was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Dahl Thursday, September 3rd, at 8 p.m. with only 9 members present.

The Pres. Mrs. Dainard was in the chair and opened the meeting with reading of the 24th Psalm followed by repeating of "The Lords Prayer", in unison.

Following the Sec. Treas. reports, attention was drawn to the correspondence received.

The main item on the business agenda was the Fall Bazaar and Tea in the Legion Hall on Thursday Nov. 26th at 3 p.m.

In preference to the regular monthly Bake Sale it was decided that Sept. be 'Talent Month', whereby all members use their own special talents as a means of raising money.

The Birthday Box received contributions from six members. Talent money for the summer was collected with special mention going to Mrs. Dahl for her generous donation.

Members and ladies of the congregation are asked to note the Oct. meeting will be held at the Manse with Mrs. Pentland as hostess and Mrs. Dahl in charge of devotional period.

At this time we wish to thank all those who donated to our Aug. Bake Sale and the public for its support. We deeply appreciate the generous donation by Mrs. Norma Meldrum (pies) and Mr. Joe Linitski (cash), and we ask for continued support of our annual Fall Tea, Bake Sale and Bazaar Thursday Nov. 26 in Legion Hall.

Some of our High School graduates who are leaving this week for higher education are: Alan Tollestrup, Sharileen Summerfeldt, and Coleen Housely to Edmonton and Karma Woolley to Calgary.

The local United Church are participating in the presentation of an "Exposition and Pageant" in Southminster United Church in Lethbridge from October 2nd to 8th. All those interested in witnessing this dramatic event are asked to keep those dates open.

AFTER 42 YEARS A CRIPPLE, HOUSEWIFE MAY WALK UNAIDED

Ever since she was stricken with polio as a 13-month-old baby, Mrs. Winnifred Mudie of Oshawa, Ont., seen above with son Teddy, has been unable to walk without a heavy brace and a three-inch cork sole shoe. Today, at 43, she believes with a faith that is humble that at last she will walk normally without artificial aids. The reason for her hope is a series of operations which began last August. It was then that the Rotary club of Oshawa stepped in to help out. When Mrs. Mudie needed to have her brace and shoe fixed, the club offered to have her examined in Toronto as well. And it was here that the doctors discovered there was still some life left in her right leg which up till then had always been completely useless. The doctors have since told Mrs. Mudie there is no reason why she won't be able to walk eventually without crutches or braces.

LOVINGLY YOURS, TINA

By Tony Grabo

TINA heaved a weary sigh and got up off the bed. She picked up the magic-skin doll that shed "real tears" with which she had been playing, and once again assumed the role of a nurse.

"There, there," Tina said in a consoling voice, as the "tears" began to flow when she tipped it. "Don't cry, dolly—everything will be all right."

She lay the doll on the bed and went to her small desk to write out a prescription—the usual procedure. "Good for one ice cream," she wrote.

At eight, Tina was a lovely little girl. But now as she sat on the bed, a troubled look came into her large, dark eyes, that were set in an oval face which was surrounded by soft, brown hair.

Today was her mother's birthday, and she wanted desperately to buy her a present. But Tina didn't have any money.

Bobby, her brother, was only ten—he had bought one for the past two years, and again this year.

It was a bottle of perfume. You'd think she was careless the way he held it himself and carefully put two drops on the front of her dress. It was heavenly!

And when she was helping him wrap it, he made her promise to keep it a secret—as if she'd tell!

In just a little while, it would be time to eat supper. Bobby would come down from his room and place the neatly wrapped box near mother's plate. Then mother would come from the kitchen and make such a terrible fuss. She'd open it and be so pleased with the gift. But Tina would only sit quietly—there would be no present from her.

Of course, Tina would say "Happy birthday, Mother." And give her a big hug and a kiss. Still, it wouldn't be the same as giving her a nice present.

Suddenly, as Tina was dressing her doll in a nightgown—she had an idea!

The sound of her mother setting the table downstairs, sent her into a flurry of action. And a moment or two later when she called for Bobby and her, she was ready.

Bobby was already seated when she came into the dining room. Tina could see his mouth sag with surprise as she placed a small, bright-ribboned box on the table near his.

He was about to say something when Tina's mother came in. Somehow, as always, she knew about Bobby's present, but her eyes grew wide when she looked down and saw one from Tina, too.

Tina clutched her small hands together under the table and held her breath as she watched her mother open the bright-ribboned package first.

It seemed like a long time to Tina before her mother opened the gift. Her fingers didn't seem to be able to untie the knot and the bow she had tied, and every once in a while, she looked at Tina with a puzzled expression.

Tina's gaze was only on her mother's face.

First, there was a warm smile, and a happy look came into her eyes. It made Tina feel good.

Suddenly, the smile faded and Tina saw the tears flooding her mother's eyes as she came quickly toward her. Her lips quivered slightly as she looked at Tina—for just a second—before clasping her to her bosom.

Tina looked hard at the slips of paper that fell from her mother's hand, but couldn't see anything that should have made her cry.

"Good for one ice cream". Nothing wrong with that. It always fixed her dolly up!

"Good for one dish washing," said the second one. No, that couldn't be it.

She looked at the last slip of paper. "Good for three hugs and three kisses", it read.

She began to wonder if it had been such a good idea after all. Then her mother raised her head, and Tina saw the look on her face; the radiant smile.

Yes, she thought, it was a very good idea.

CPR Had First Domes

A long forgotten genius in the Canadian Pacific Railway's motive power and rolling stock department came up with an idea at the turn of the 20th century that blossomed into additional passenger revenues for rail lines throughout the continent.

It was the first "dome" car to be used on railway lines and was designed to give passengers a bird's eye view of Canada's spectacular Rocky Mountain scenery.

Today the idea has spread throughout the world, particularly in the United States where railway dome cars are a feature of several lines.

In a recent $38,000,000 order for 155 new stainless steel cars, the C.P.R. included 36 scenic-dome cars, such as the one shown above in top picture, which will give travellers an unmatched view of this country's scenery from coast to coast. The cars will be placed in service on transcontinental trains next year.

Although the designer of the dome car prototype, shown in bottom picture above, remains unknown, he gave Canada's first transcontinental rail line a head start in railway design. In July, 1902, the world's first dome car rolled out of the shops and into service.

In it, railway passengers could sit in revolving parlor car chairs or reversible seats and have a clear view of Canada's scenery.

The car proved an immediate hit and three others, with modified improvements, were put into service. But the C.P.R.'s unknown designer had outstripped his era.

Air conditioning and Polaroid glass were unknown and the sun's ultra-violet rays proved uncomfortably warm. The cars were replaced with open-air observation cars, several years later.

"The railway reverted back to its original idea recently when it ordered the 36 dome cars—more than 50 years after it first had them on the road."

"Canada's scenery is hard to beat in any corner of the land," a railway official said. "We admit the Rocky Mountain area is the most spectacular, but we believe the cars can be used to advantage from coast to coast."

Sweater Screen
I feel sure you will be interested in my method of drying sweaters quickly. Wash them and squeeze them dry in a towel then lay them on a screen and shape them properly. This screen I elevate above the table several inches by putting bricks under the corners allowing a circulation of air under them. They dry in much less time than when lying flat on the table.

SALADS help keep meals from becoming dull especially if you practice the fine art of making salads properly. Combine your fruits for salad just before serving so their appearance will be just as fresh and crisp as possible. When using canned or cooked fruits or vegetables for salad, drain them carefully before placing on the salad greens. Liquid will often weigh the tender greens down and make them look wilted. Chill the plates as well as dressing and ingredients. Salads should be served cold unless they're a hot type of salad such as hot potato or wilted lettuce. Vegetable salads can be varied simply by adding a flavorful ingredient to the dressing. Flavor

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Veal en Casserole

(Serves 4-5)

- 2 cups cooked, cubed veal
- 3 slices bread, cut in cubes
- 2 tablespoons pickle relish
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 cup shredded American cheese
- 1 cup milk
- 1 tablespoon catsup
- 1 teaspoon salt

Place bread cubes into oven to toast while preheating oven. Place veal into 2-quart casserole. Cover with pickle relish and flour. Top with 1/2 cup shredded cheese. Cover with toasted bread cubes. Combine milk, catsup and salt. Pour over all. Top with remaining cheese. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 25 to 30 minutes.

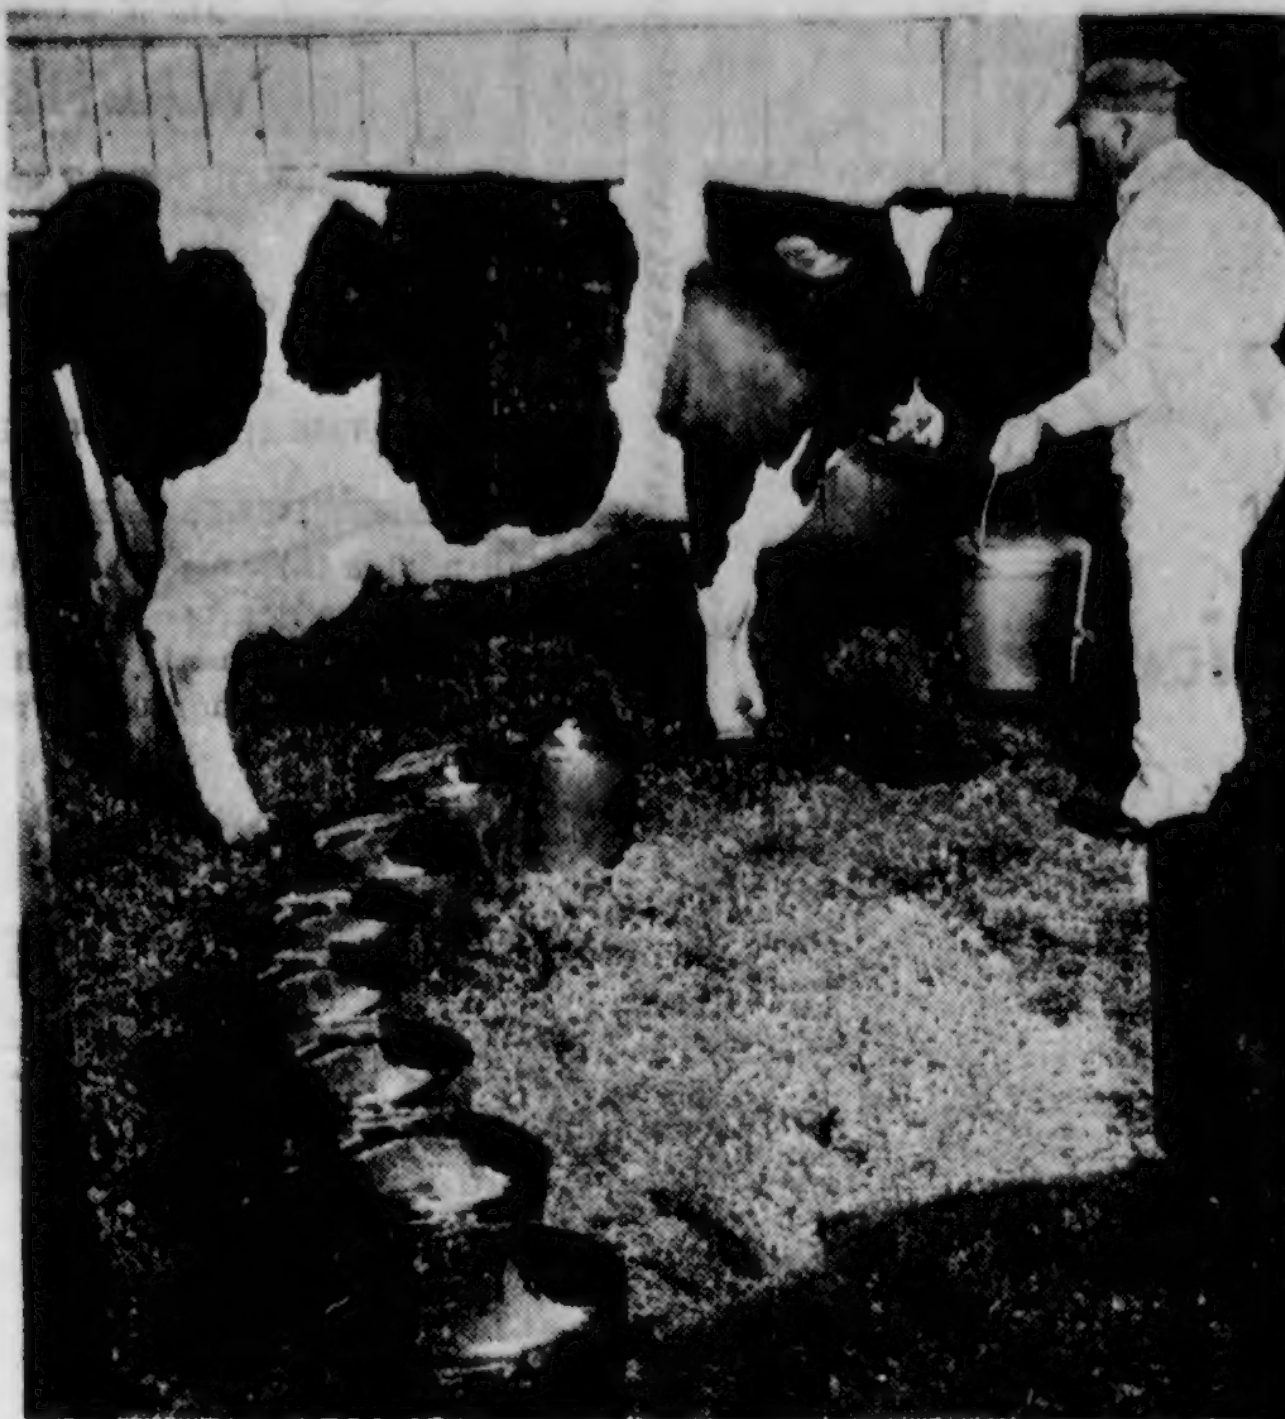

mayonnaise or French dressing with one of the following: deviled ham, sweet relish, chopped pickle, olives, mustard or catsup.

Now that we're going to be in season for fresh berries, toss a few of these on your fruit salads for color and interest. Berries and grapes can be frosted when you want to make salads special by dipping in slightly beaten egg white and then rolling in granulated sugar.

Keep the salad plate from looking cluttered. Greens should never hang over the edge, for example.

Mayonnaise for fruit salads can be thinned with leftover fruit juice for canned or citrus fruits. Cream or whipped cream may also be used.

A WORLD CHAMPION LOOKS BORED

Homestead Daisy Madcap is the world champion walking milk factory. On Jan. 13, her 365-day average milk production stood at 43 quarts, and in the year she produced almost her own weight in table butter—1,500 pounds. Daisy appears suitably modest about it all, or may be just bored, as she views the nine five-quart pails she is expected to fill at her barn in Carnation, Wash., where her output was checked by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

The younger generation isn't as lazy as some claim. The census bureau says five times more high-school youngsters hold jobs now than in 1940. The bureau reported that a survey showed 28 of each 100 boys and 17 of each 100 girls in the 14-to-17-year old bracket both go to school and hold down outside jobs.

One day when things went amiss, our five-year-old stomped out the front door announcing he was going to his farm, an imaginary place which was very real to him. In a few minutes he came back in and we asked him why he didn't go. "I couldn't," was the quick rejoinder. "My wife had the car."

Most plants which grow in meadow land are European imports. The clover was brought here deliberately, but daisies, buttercups, thistles, and other moved over by themselves.

Tourist business: A sign in the window of a travel bureau in Milan lately urged: "Visit Rome, the eternal city, site of the gigantic American film, 'Quo Vadis'."

Let's Eat

BY
IDA BAILEY ALLEN

"I take off my high bonnet to the clever woman who gave the name 'la mode' to apple pie topped with ice cream!" exclaimed the chef. "This name is what you call a natural. It means in the latest fashion; and everybody likes to be in style."

"At first, chef, only apple pie was served a la mode. Then ice cream was tried on mince, raspberry and pumpkin pie. It was a great luxury at the turn of the century."

Sold Everywhere

"But everybody can enjoy it now, with dairies selling ice cream in cartons at food stores, drug stores and supermarkets. From that simple beginning, we have brownies, cake and jelly roll a la mode. Crumb custard, Bittles, Indian and steamed pudding a la mode. Even gelatines are served topped with ice cream."

"This makes for good eating and good nourishment. And because of the wide sale in carton form, the price of ice cream has come down so it is within the budget."

Baked Macaroni and Cheese
Add 8 oz. high-protein macaroni

Adding small cubes of cream cheese to an omelet just before it is folded makes an unusual and delicious addition to its flavor and texture.

and 1 tsp. salt to 4 cups boiling water. Boil slowly until the macaroni is tender—from 10-14 minutes. (It should absorb all the water).

Meanwhile, make 2 cups white sauce as follows: Melt 2 tbsps. butter or margarine in a saucepan; stir in 2 tbsps. enriched flour, 1 tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper, ¼ tsp. dry mustard and 1 tsp. onion juice. Gradually stir in 2 cups milk. Cook and stir until slightly thickened. Then add 1½ cups coarse-grated sharp cheddar cheese, and the cooked high-protein elbow macaroni.

Transfer to a buttered or margarine 2 quart baking dish. Top with ½ cup grated cheddar cheese mixed with ½ cup fine soft bread crumbs and 1 tsp. melted butter or margarine. Bake 30-35 minutes in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F.

Cranberry-Apple Crisp a la Mode

In a bowl combine 1 cup uncooked rolled oats, ½ cup enriched flour and 1 cup brown sugar. Add ½ cup margarine; chop in with a pastry blender. Rub an 8x8-in. square pan with margarine; spread in half the oats mixture, and then 1½ cups canned cranberry sauce mixed with 1½ cups fine-chopped apple. Top with the remaining oats mixture. Bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees F. Serve hot cut in squares; top with ice cream.

Suggestion of the Chef

Garnish cooked vegetable salad with salted peanuts or butter-toasted almonds.
